

Abraham's Table of Long Island

"Come together and listen." Genesis 49:2

Help the Poor (Quran 02:83)

Jewish, Christian and Muslim

Teachings and Practices of Charity and Justice

A Panel Discussion Followed by an Iftar Dinner Marking the End of the Ramadan Fast

Sunday, June 3, 2018, 6:00-9:30 PM

(There is No Charge for This Program: Iftar Dinner Provided by Turkish Cultural Center)

Registration required by May 30 <http://bit.ly/2v9x0PO>

Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal Parish Hall

1434 Straight Path, Wyandanch 11798

Panelists: Rabbi Jeffrey Clopper, Temple Beth El, Huntington; Rev. Marie Tatro, Vicar for Justice, Episcopal Diocese of Long Island; Laila Muhammad, Muslim Community Educator and Activist; Moderator: Richard Koubek, LI Jobs with Justice

Discussion, with Audience Participation:

- How does your tradition define charity and justice? What are the Scriptural and theological calls to do both charity and justice?
- Do religious congregations prefer works of charity over justice? Why? Does charity undermine advocacy for justice? How can we reconcile charity and justice?
- Do works of charity and justice undermine the self-sufficiency of poor people? How can we partner with poor people to advocate for and help themselves?